Skills Personal Qualities

I'm a constructive thinker, making sure I've got the whole idea in my head before I do something. I'm able to quickly combine and creatively build things (that already exist or from scratch) towards an end goal. I'm quite flexible and very motivated in a project. I'm hardworking and rarely absent from school. A quick learner and in need of little support.

I'm very honest and direct in my comments, where I also tend to have a pro-active assertive attitude towards any goal I have. Finally, I strive for the best in every project I make. I dislike slacking and try to achieve the best highest rate of perfection that is possible from my hands.

I am also skilled with many kinds of software (listed are those most used):

Hobbies Interests

I'm mostly interested in graphic design and visual presentation on computers and other appliances. I'm primarily interested in video gamedesign, followed by website design and digital photography/manipulation. My main interest however goes to videogames. Next to that I take pleasure in drawing and sketching all sorts of idea's that come into my head. Through this I participate in artistic activities to improve my skills even further.

My ultimate dream, however, is to be able to create and design my own videogames ...

I enjoy traveling and speaking foreign languages. Languages I already mostly understand and try to improve on are Spanish, German and some limited Surinamese. Furthermore I enjoy sports in the form of jogging and team based ball sports like football and basketball.

This resume is only a small portion of my work. If you'd like to see more, please check aziointelli.deviantart.com or www.azi0.com. Or if you have any questions or want to make an appointment, please email or call me.
